KOOPMAN'S
Anti-Dysenteric & Anti-Dyspeptic
BITTERS.
PREPARED BY B. KOOPMAN.
CHARLOTTE, N. C.

THESE unrivalled Bitters possess peculiar curative properties in all Affections of the Bowels. They will be found effectual in the cure of Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach and all those painful and troublesome diseases arising from a derangement of the digestive organs and irregular action of the functions of the stomach and intestines. They will also be found a SAFE REMEDY FOR CHILLS AND FEVERS.

These Bitters are prepared from Roots brought from Germany, and for over a century have been found effectual in that country for the permanent cure of the diseases enumerated above. They contain no deleterious drug, but are compounded entirely from roots, and are perfectly safe at all times.

A simple trial is all that is asked, as a cure will naturally follow, and that is the best certificate of their superiority over every other remedy for those particular diseases.

They are manufactured by B. Koopman, Charlotte, N. C., and for sale by,
KOOPMAN & PHELPS.

Also, for sale at F. Scarr's and E. Nye Hutchinson & Co's Drug Stores. [feb 25-1y

Notice to Merchants.

FORWARDING OFFICE
S. C. R. R. Co.
CHARLESTON, March 16, 1861.

THE South Carolina Railroad Company having determined to discontinue this department of the service, the undersigned, who has been the forwarding Agent of the Company for the last four or five years, has associated with him the Chief Clerk in the department, and, under the name of GANTT & STONY, will continue to RECEIVE and FORWARD such articles as may be consigned to his care. He trusts, by strict personal attention, to retain a very liberal share of the business of the department.

Parties are reminded that all goods now reaching this port from points beyond the Confederate States of America, must be entered at the Custom House, and that duties are payable on such as are not purchased on or before the 28th February last, and laden on shipboard on or before the 15th March instant, save such as are on the free list. It is therefore necessary that remittances be made to pay the duties where duties are payable, AND IN ALL CASES TO COVER THE EXPENSE OF CUSTOM HOUSE ENTRY, WHETHER THE GOODS ARE FREE OR NOT. Prompt compliance will prevent delay and expanse, as all articles not entered and permitted will be stored by the Custom House officers. The South Carolina Railroad Company will advance, as heretofore, the charges of freight, drayage and warfage, but not the expenses connected with the Custom House.

Rates of charges for forwarding will be very moderate, and may be had on application to GANTT & STONY, to whom all business communications should be addressed.

The undersigned refers to the officers of the South Carolina Railroad Company, to the customers of the Forwarding Department, and to all merchants of standing in the city of Charleston, and respectfully solicits a liberal share of patronage.

JAMES L. GANTT.
Late Forwarding Agent S. C. R. R. Co.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

THE NEWBERN

Daily and Weekly Progress.

IT IS ALREADY KNOWN TO THE PUBLIC that the unceremonious entrance of Burnside into Newbern on Friday last has compelled the temporary suspension of the PROGRESS. This was a barbarous and villainous proceeding of old Burnside, inasmuch as it has deprived the public of the advantages of a good paper, besides the inconvenience to the citizens of Newbern.

By the discomfiture of our arms at Newbern, I have lost everything I had in the world—presses, type, and stock and other office material and furniture and other property of all kinds, is all gone—but still I hope to be able to make arrangements at an early day to issue the PROGRESS at some point not very remote from the old stand; this will depend however upon the extent to which our friends are able to appreciate the bowels of the land.

Having lost all I have, I must urge all who are indebted to the PROGRESS office to make immediate settlement. Though in the army my address will be for the present, Goldsboro, N. C.

☞ Papers in the State that receive the PROGRESS in exchange will please copy or notice this card. J. L. PENNINGTON.

THIRTY DOLLARS REWARD,

WILL be given for the apprehension and delivery of David Reid, who deserted Company E., 34th Regiment, North Carolina Troops, at Camp Mangum, near Raleigh, N. C., 13th January, 1862.—Said Reid is supposed to be thirty-seven years of age, five feet eleven inches high, sandy hair, blue eyes, red complexion and down look, nothing promising indicated in his appearance. Said Reid's residence is Caldwell county, N. C., where he is supposed to be lurking. Bring him in and receive the above reward.

GEORGE A. SHIELDS, Foreman.

MANUFACTURES STEAM ENGINES of any power desired, for Mills and Plantation purposes, at short notice, having at all times on hand some finished, or in a forward state. In connection with our Mill and Engine Work, we have secured the services of Mr. JOHN CRABTREE, who is one of the best Millwrights in the South, to superintend the putting up of Mills and Engines.

CORN MILLS.

I am Agent for one of the best PORTABLE MILLS now in use, and can furnish any size wanted. Persons wishing the Mills are invited to call at the Works, and witness the operation of the one now in use. The Mill-rack, which is the very best, is procured from Edgefield, S. C., and the Mills are built complete at our Establishment.

BRASS AND IRON CASTINGS.

All descriptions of BRASS and IRON CASTINGS executed in the very best manner, and at short notice, as we cast every day in the week. Our stock of patterns is very large, having recently purchased all those formerly owned by G. W. Wright, which being added to those made at my Establishment for the past five years, makes the assortment more full than any other like establishment in the State.

Wire Railing.

I am agent for one of the largest Wire Railing Companies at the North, and will furnish WINDOW GUARDS, GALLERIES, VERANDAHS, BEDSTEADS, or any description of Wire Work, at the book prices of the manufacturer, which can be seen at my office.

CIRCULAR SAWS.

I am agent for R. Hoe & Co's celebrated CIRCULAR SAWS, and also for a manufacturer of the same article in Richmond, Va. A full supply of these SAWS, of all sizes, always on hand. Persons visiting them, will do well to call on me, as I make no charge for fitting them to the mandrels.

PROSPECTUS

HILLSBOROUGH RECORDER,

DEVOTED TO

POLITICS, AGRICULTURE, MISCELLANY, GENERAL NEWS.

PUBLISHED BY

DENNIS HEARTT.

HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.

WITH the present volume the RECORDER commenced the fortieth year of its existence, the first number having been issued the 10th of February, 1820; during all which time we have labored to make our paper interesting and useful, and we hope that in these particulars we have not been altogether unsuccessful. It has been our wish to make the RECORDER a good Family Paper, devoted to Politics, Agriculture, Miscellany, General News, &c., with a view to the entertainment and improvement of the farmers and citizens of the circle in which it is distributed. Our Agricultural department we endeavor to fill with the best selections we can make from all sources, giving preference to such as will be of practical use to the farmer and cultivator; and in this particular we hope to make the RECORDER as valuable to the agriculturist as any periodical of a purely agricultural character. In our Miscellaneous department, we shall confine to be, as we have always been, careful to select such articles as will have a tendency not only to amuse, but to improve the mind and heart. While we shall be thankful to receive well-written articles to adorn our columns, we are not so ambitious of originality as not to prefer selected matter of superior merit, to loosely-written and ill-digested articles, though ornamented at the top with the coveted words—"Written expressly for the RECORDER." In our News department we shall take especial pains to present to our readers the latest intelligence; and to enable us to do so we have facilities equal to those enjoyed in any portion of the State, except those favored with telegraphic communication.

A single copy; one year.....$ 2.00
Six copies, one year.....10.00

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

STATE JOURNAL.

HAVING become the proprietor of the Democratic Press, I have merged that paper into the STATE JOURNAL, which will be published Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

The STATE JOURNAL will advocate Democratic principles in the broadest sense, and will support and defend Democratic measures and their advocates as they are presented, and as occasion may require. In other essentials it will be my aim to make the paper, what its name denotes, a State Journal—eschewing all sectional considerations and working for the entire State and her common interests.

As soon as arrangements can be made, the whole paper shall be re-modeled and printed with new type, on good paper, and in a superior manner.

The Editorial department will be properly attended to in its various branches, and will speak for itself. Neither labor nor expense will be spared in the management of the paper.

The terms of the State Journal will be as follows:

Semi-Weekly, per annum.....$4 00
Weekly.....2 00

These terms will be insisted upon invariably in advance. No name will be put upon the list without the money, and all papers will be discontinued at the expiration of the time for which they have been paid, unless the subscription be renewed. I am satisfied, from years of experience, that upon no other footing can any newspaper hope to succeed.

Advertisements of a proper character will be inserted at the following rates:

One square, first insertion.....$1 00
Each subsequent insertion.....25 cents.

A liberal deduction on these rates for yearly advertisers in the Semi-Weekly. In the Weekly edition the full rates will be charged.

A NORTH CAROLINA PAPER

THE TIMES!

A large Eight Page Weekly, published in Greensboro, N. C., at $2 per year, Cash, for six months.

THE TIMES contains weekly forty columns of choice matter, specially adapted to the family circle. It is neither sectarian nor political, but by being courteous to all sects and parties, it is the constant aim of the publishers to present in its columns whatever may elevate the people and enrich the State. The publishers would earnestly appeal to the families of North Carolina to give THE TIMES a trial; try it for six months, to see if it be not as well to patronize home papers, as those from abroad, to build up home interests and a State pride, and to scatter our substance and our energies among strangers. Give THE TIMES a trial and then let it stand upon its merits.

WHAT IS SAID OF THE TIMES.

"The Times I regard as the very first of our Southern Literary Weeklies."—Rev. C. F. Deems.

"I know of no Weekly published anywhere, that is so deserving of public patronage as the Times."—Rev. J. E. Edwards.

"There is no pandering to a vitiated taste—every article is of a moral tendency, and calculated both to amuse and instruct."—Wilmington Herald

"One of the handsomest weekly papers published in the Union."—Spirit of the Age.

"Let the people of North Caarolina encourage their own newspapers.—Raleigh Standard.

We offer to advertisers the inducement of sending their favors to be read by a numerous and influential class of readers, both in town and country. The Southern Guardian presents great advantages as an advertising medium; its circulation is large, and is daily and rapidly extending, particularly in the middle and upper districts of the State.

JOB PRINTING.

The Job Office is thoroughly appointed in all respects, and fitted for every description of Job Work. In connection with it is a Bindery.

The Southern Guardian is devoted to the maintenance of the rights, honor and interests of the South under the Constitution. While it is willing to sustain the Democratic party when its measures shall command approval by its justice, it yet more confidently and distinctly relies upon the people of the South; and as the best preparation for the contest which is even now upon us, it will zealously labor to effect union and co-operation amongst ourselves.

In the management of this journal, the early production of every class of news from all parts of the world, the lessons of virtue and morality, the interests of education, agriculture, commerce, and manufactures,—will be kept prominently in view, and no effort will be spared to make it, in all respects, an acceptable life-visitor.

☞ We send our Daily to nearly all the Weekly newspapers of the State. Will they, in consideration of this advantage, kindly give the above prospectus a few insertions. june 7

The Literary Paper of the South

"EVERY FAMILY SHOULD READ IT"

THE TIMES.

THE LARGEST! THE CHEAPEST! THE BEST! ILLUSTRATED SOUTHERN FAMILY PAPER!

THE TIMES is neither political nor sectarian, but is the constant aim of the Editors to fill its columns with the choicest Historical, Literary and Family reading, and with a large selection of all the new of the day, both foreign and domestic.

The fifth volume commences with the new year 1860. Engagements have been made to make this the most brilliant year in the history of THE TIMES. It will commence with Three Beautiful Prize Stories.

Its illustrations will be increased; and its typographical appearance will be improved by a still neater dress. The Publishers are determined to keep pace with the improvements of the age; their motto is "PROGRESSION," and as the circulation of THE TIMES enlarges each year, they are determined to add new attractions to its columns, and make it the literary paper of the South. With these inducements the Publishers confidently expect several thousand increase in circulation.

But as additional incentives to the friends of the South to encourage their own literary and family paper, in which they will find none of that impure and immoral reading which sometimes they get from abroad, the Publishers of THE TIMES offer

$2,500 IN PREMIUMS

For subscribers to commence with the new volume and the new year. THE TIMES is printed weekly on eight large pages, fine paper, at $2 a year, in advance. For specimen numbers and circulars address the publishers,

THE CHARLESTON MERCURY

A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL AND LITERARY NEWSPAPER.

PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY

THE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Market and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce in the leading Exports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times,) and regular Correspondents in New York, Washington, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive. Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family circle.

The political creed of the MERCURY consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the agent of the States; Free Trade, and an economical Administration of the Government. Its policy is the Union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights.

THE FARMER AND PLANTER

REMOVED TO

COLUMBIA, S. C

HAVING purchased of Maj. Geo. Seabrook this popular journal, I have removed its place of publication to Columbia, and will hereafter issue it from this city at regular stated periods.

Feeling confident that such a journal is greatly needed in this State, and believing that it will be sustained, if located at the Capitol of the State and conducted with spirit and ability, I have determined on making the venture, and call upon every Farmer and Planter in South Carolina to encourage the enterprise by their patronage.

It will be printed in the finest style of Typography, with new type, on fine paper, handsomely embellished, and eight pages added to its former size.

Price only ONE DOLLAR per annum, Always in advance.

A corps of the best practical and scientific Agricultural writers have been secured, and its Editorial department will be under the care of one of the best Farmers in the land.

LETTER FROM MT. AIRY.

Correspondence of the Daily Bulletin.]

MT. AIRY, Surry county, N. C., April 16th, 1862.

To-day Capt. J. C. Norman's company, being about to leave for the seat of war, were marched up in front of the new Methodist Church to receive a flag, prepared for them by ladies of our village and vicinity. Although it was raining a considerable crowd had assembled to witness the ceremonies of the presentation. The flag was really a most beautiful one, and did credit to the taste of those who made it, and as they had taken their own costly silken shawls to furnish the materials, showed a spirit of patriotism worthy of imitation by the sterner sex, as we sometimes rather arrogantly style ourselves. Miss M. Gertrude Bitting had been selected by the ladies to present the flag, which she did in the most bewitching manner, accompanying the act with the following address uttered very distinctly and deliberately:

Soldiers: The invader has polluted the soil of our own State with his unhallowed tread. Her daughters, our sisters, are flying from his approach, leaving behind them the dear homes which their taste had adorned, and seeking shelter and safety among our hills and mountains. Their sufferings, and the voice of patriotism, calls upon all brave and manly-hearted sons of the old North State, from the serf-beaten shore to the mountain top, and implores them to rush to arms to shield her daughters from insult and injury, and to maintain with all their former glory their own liberty and independence. You have nobly responded to your country's call, and have shown yourselves worthy sons of the heroes of the old revolution, whilst the craven-hearted, detested of women and scorned of men, skulk from their duty ashamed of their dastardly cowardice. You have shown yourselves true patriots, actuated by those high and noble aspirations, which have made the heroes of history, men delight to honor. To you we commit this flag made by our own hands. Every piece of it is connected with some past association pleasing to us; but no past pleasure has been so great, as that will be, which we will feel when we know that under its folds you have gallantly met the foe and taught him its motto is not idle words. Teach him that conquering you come. Yes, go on unfaltering to victory. If you fall, mothers, wives and friends will weep; but if you return in triumph the [illegible] shall be yours, and the fairest garland woman's hand can twine shall deck your brow,

Then, advance the flag of Dixie,
And conquer peace, for Dixie.

After receiving the flag Capt. Norman responded in an appropriate and touching manner, in substance as follows:

MISS BITTING: Permit me through you to tender to the ladies, who have honored us with this flag, my thanks and the thanks of these soldiers who have placed me in a position which authorizes me to speak for them. It is my determination, and I know it is the determination of every man of this company, to stand by that flag so long as our hand is left to uphold it. The name which you have given us is appropriate. We are "Farmer Boys;" our hands have grasped the plow handle; we are sons of the soil and are therefore the more fondly attached to it. When the foot of the foe, as you have said, polluted it; when the cry of its helpless daughters, fleeing from a brutal invader, reached us we could no longer remain at home. Although we have social and familiar ties as strong as others; although we love the endearments of our own hearth-stones as fervently as others, yet we forsake all these, and stake our all, to do or die for our country.

It is painful indeed to rudely tear away from these loved objects around which our heartstrings have been twining. It is hard to leave home, wife, children and friends. Yet it is better to leave all and drive back the invader than to see him overrun our country; reduce us to bonds and servitude, and oppress and insult our mothers, wives and children. We go. To you, people of Surry, who remain behind we leave everything that is dear to man—our wives, our sisters, our mothers, our all. It is for you to see that they do not suffer. In the hour of our trial if we learn you are not doing your duty, it would be to suppose us more than mortals if it did not unnerve our arms and cause our hearts to quail. To you who remain behind a work is left. The country can spare none for idleness and ease. Provisions must be raised. Your corn must be planted and cultivated with more than usual care. Men cannot fight without being fed, and few men can have the heart to serve their country cheerfully if they know their families are suffering for want of bread. Drive out from among you that worse than idle class, the speculators, who are trading in the very life blood of their country.—They are enemies of the very worst kind; far better they were in Lincoln's army. I think I begin to see brighter skies ahead. We are becoming more united, more in earnest. The few disloyal men who were in our midst, have become reconciled; and here permit me to call your attention to the truth that the women of the South have always been true. They have evinced and are still showing a patriotism never surpassed, and rarely if ever equalled. You have heard of disloyal men, but never of disloyal women. You have heard of Lincoln men, but never of Lincoln women.—You have heard of men still clinging to an old Union, broken and destroyed more than a year ago, but you never hear of any such Union women. Although I will not undertake to say, that after peace is conquered, some of them may not favor a union.

The above was received with loud acclamation by the by-standers. Everything passed off harmoniously, and soon the seventh company from old Surry were on their way to the war. A SPECTATOR.

CHARLOTTE.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 23, 1862.

☞ Those who may at any time order a change in the direction of their paper will please name the office from which the change is to be made as well as the office to which the paper is to be sent in future.

We have several letters on hand ordering changes, but cannot spare the time to go through an examination of some four thousand names in order to learn the post office.

☞ The News received by Telegraph, (if any,) since our first edition was put to press, will be found on the first page.

Acknowledgment.

All honor to the energy and benevolence of our patriotic ladies. On Monday, Major Boone, Quartermaster of our Brigade at Kinston, visited this place and made an appeal to the ladies of the Soldiers Aid Society of this place for 1000 mattresses, 1000 sheets and 1000 pillow cases. The supply was immediately undertaken, and on Wednesday the mattresses were supplied, and by Friday the pillow cases and sheets were completed, and the whole forwarded to Kinston. This Society of ladies has been diligently, but unostentatiously laboring for our gallant soldiers for eight or nine months; and when the record of these patriotic labors shall have been made up, it will reflect on the character of the community the highest honor.

Spirit of our State Press.

The Wilmington Journal of Saturday last is pleased to learn that the planters in the Pee Dee section of our State is planting little or no cotton this year, but much corn. So in all other sections of the State. Of course we speak of things generally, for there are no doubt some persons that will plant their full avarage of cotton and more, thinking that others will plant corn enough—that there will be very little cotton, and that something will turn up whereby they will make much money. There are some people who, if sent to tophet, would try to cheat the devil, speculate on the brimstone, and busker out the h——ot-fire at six dollars a bushel. May they be well supplied!

Upon the subject of Taxes the Journal remarks:

"Commissioners of Town have been authorized by the Legislature, and have availed themselves of the authority, to include among the subjects of Taxation for town purposes a large class of taxables not heretofore so included, the Town Tax having been always previously levied upon real estate and polls, almost exclusively; thus differing from the system in other large towns and cities, and tending to lay heavy and unequal burdens upon one class of persons and property. In Charleston, Savannah and elsewhere, as we are informed, a system of taxation similar to that now inaugerated by our Commissioners has been in operation, and is looked upon as the fairest and most equitable, as it aportions taxes in accordance with advantages derived and consequent ability and moral obligation to pay for the enjoyment of such advantages."

The Salisbury Watchman refers in an appropriate manner to a Mr. Phifer, a cotton manufacturer in Lincoln, who continues to sell yarns at $1.50 per bunch, satisfied that that is enough, although other manufactures in the town and the surrounding counties, are demanding from $2.25 to $2.50. He is turning out 125 bunches per day, which are sold as fast as they can be packed.

Under the heading of a "Laudible Motive," the Watchman remarks:

"We have just talked with one of the old and respectable farmers of this county who informed us that he had some bacon and flour to spare, and now while prices are high, his surplus would bring him a handsome some of money. But he had concluded not to sell to the numerous persons about town, nor to those who are running over the country scraping up everything of the kind for speculation, or to supply distant communities. He would reserve his stock of surplus provisions for the benefit of his immediate neighbors.—Many of the men of his neighborhood had gone to the war, leaving families behind who would have to be supplied by purchase. His "stock should be reserved for them, and they should have it, whether he got pay for it or not."

"How many of our able farmers have had the forthought to reserve enough surplus provisions to provide for those poor families in their respective neighborhoods to keep them from starving? This is an interresting inquiry, and should be kept in view by all who have provisions to spare."

The Milton Chronicle is down upon the Conscription Law. It says:—"We protest against it because in our—yes our—opinion it is a unsurpation of the Constitution; a base violation of the sacred honor of the law of contracts; and outrage upon the Rights of the States, and because there is not a man who treads the soil of the South that would have dared eighteen months ago to hint to the people that in case of war it should be fought on our part by a conscript army, such as the despotism of Russia sends to the field, and the system of volunteering and drafting should be abolished. Where is the man who, in his zeal to bring about the revolution now on hand, that would have dared to propose conscription? He lives not."

The Carolina Flag, published at Concord, N. C., also denounces the Conscription Act adopted by Congres. It says:—We stand side by side with the Winston Sentinel in his opposition to this outrageous measure, with the Wilmington Journal, Raleigh Standard, Salem Press, and the Fayetteville Observer.

It is evident some of our brethren of the Press are not favorable to a plan which may call them from the quiet of the sanctum or the composing stick to go into active service with a shooting-stick, at shoulder arms or the deadly charge upon a solid column.

As regards the Danville Rail Road connection the Milton Chronicle says:

"Our Greensborough cotemporaries are likely to have a few duck fits if the "connection" is not made from that town to Danville. They seem to think it is obliged to be made from one of these "big" towns to the other, and that it cant't be otherwise. The "Patriot" says "all impartial men who will look at any map ever made including Virginia and North Carolina, will say the connection should be made from Danville to Greensborough." We suggest that if the "impartial man" will take the map and look at the route from Barksdale's to the Haw River House, he will say "this is the route, because it is not only five times as easy to grade, but there will be from eight to ten miles less road to construct, and then it is equally as near to Greensboro', as via Danville."

The Mountain Eagle referring to the approaching election for a Governor of North Carolina says:—We are not disposed to keep a balance sheet against our brethren of the East, yet could they fairly claim the next Governor our choice would be the Hon. Robert R. Bridgers, of Edgecombe—a practicable man who has succeeded well in every enterprise of his life, who shrinks not from any labor or expense to insure success. But, as the East has both Senators and the present Governor, our choice is William Johnston.

From the Peninsula.

We are permitted to make the following extract from a private letter, dated Yorktown, Va., April 16, 1862:

"The long-talked-of and looked-for attack on Yorktown is at hand. On Saturday, April 5th, the enemy appeared in large numbers near this place. Between ten and eleven o'clock A. M., the ball opened, and a very heavy cannonade was kept up along the whole line, which extends from Yorktown to the Warwick river, until night. The battle raged with great violence, but as it was fought almost entirely with artillery, and our forces having breastworks for protection, there were very few casualties on our side. The loss of the enemy must have been quite severe.

"The Yankees have been within 1,000 yards of our lines for twelve days, and have kept up an almost incessant bombardment during that period. On yesterday (the 5th) the fight commenced early in the morning, and continued during the forenoon with its usual effect; but in the afternoon the attack became general. The enemy concentrated a large force near the centre of our lines, and charged three or four times; but our brave boys successively repulsed them with heavy loss, (reported from 500 to 600,) while our killed and wounded do not exceed 100. Col. McKinney, of the 15th North Carolina regiment, was killed while gallantly leading on his men. He was a brave man, and much beloved by his regiment.

"It is truly wonderful that our loss has been so small, as we have had shell, shot, and ball flying around us in every direction. Our men are in fine spirits, feeling confident that the enemy will be repulsed with great loss, and even with one of the most brilliant victories on record.

A postscript to the foregoing, dated the 17th, 12 o'clock, says that the cannonading has again commenced. A general engagement is daily expected.

Texas.

The Houston (Galveston) News, of the 8th, says:

A gentlemen from Goliad informs us that the whole country west of the Guadalupe is parched with the drought. There has been very little rain during the past winter, and the ground is so dry that the corn and other crops planted cannot grow. Even the grass on the prairie does not grow, and there is scarcely enough to keep the stock alive. In consequence, hauling from the Rio Grande has advanced from $3,50 to 5,50 per 100 pounds to Alleyton, as the teamsters have to pack their corn and fodder to feed their teams. A great many oxen die on the road. There has been and still is a constant stream of travel between Goliad and Brownsville.

The Houston Telegraph publishes a statement by which it appears that there are forty-four Texas Regiments—cavalry, lancers, artillery and infantry—in the Confederate service. Others are now being raised by those bearing commissions from the War Department, and under the requisition on the Governor for fifteen additional regiments.

We learn from the Houston (Galveston) News that Gen. Waul has retured to Texas to raise troops for Gen. Van Dorn's army.

The Houston Telegraph, of the 9th, has the following:

From all parts of the West we hear doleful accounts of the drouth now prevailing, and its effect upon the cattle. Thousands upon thousands of them are dying for want of water. If it don't rain soon there will be hard times in Western Texas before the year is out.

In another column the Telegraph has more favorable intelligence. It says:

The Seguin Confederacy rejoices in a heavy rain there last Tuesday week, the heaviest for a year.

The Antonio Herald mentions partial showers in that neighborhood.

A Dry Summer Apprehended.

Here is another warning for cotton planters. The Tuscaloosa (Ala.) Observer says:

"If we interpret the signs correctly, there is every prospect of a dry summer. In that event, the bottom lands are the only lands that will make much corn. If, however, those lands, or even a portion of them, should be planted in cotton, the country will be reduced to starvation. The thirsty uplands require vast quantities of rain to make a remunerative crop of corn. God save the country, if the cotton planters are about to put any of their rich lands in cotton."

DESERTERS.—A report has reached this city which says that five persons, consisting of four men and a boy, came ashore in a boat from the Lincoln blockade on Saturday night, and landed on Sullivan's Island, where they are held as prisoners. [Charleston Courier, 21st.

Latest Northern News.

We get from Northern papers of the 15th and our latest Southern exchanges the following summary of news:

GENERAL BANKS' COLUMN—OCCUPATION OF WARRENTON, VA.

A dispatch from Washington, dated the 12th, says:

The cavalry of General Banks occupied Warrenton yesterday, the rebels abandoning the place without firing a gun. Few of the inhabitants remain.

The country is exceedingly beautiful, the wheat being several inches high, and the grass is considerably advanced in growth. The farmers appear to have been little molested; they are pursuing their avocations apparently with as much unconcern as before the rebellion.

CAPTURE OF ISLAND NO. 10.

CAIRO, April 11.—Several boat loads of prisoners arrived to-day from Island No. 10. The generals and field officers are to be sent to Fort Warren, company officers to Columbus, and privates to Chicago and Springfield. Generals Makall, and several subordinate officers, are here on parole. The latter general is very communicative. He says that our four weeks bombardment killed only one man.

The future operations on the Mississippi since the capture of Island No. 10, and the advance of our troops southward, will be of an important character.

TAKE CARE OF THE FACTORIES AND FOUNDRIES.—One of the rascals taken with the stolen engine confesses that another band of incendiaries is either to be sent, or has been sent South to burn and destroy all the foundries, factories, &c., that they can.—This is not the first time that we have been warned of the danger, and again we urge proprietors to guard well their factories and foundries.—Atlanta Commonwealth.

WANTED!

A BATTALION

OF

INDEPENDENT SKIRMISHERS.

Permission has been granted Capt. WM. LEE DAVIDSON to raise the above corps. General RANSOM desires such an organization attached to his Brigade.

Three Companies of the above description are more effective than one whole regiment of regulars. It is the same mode of warfare that was carried on in the revolution. Let us harass and annoy the enemy in the rear. One more appeal is made to old Mecklenburg and the surrounding Counties. The Conscription act requiring all men between 18 and 35 years of age, to enter the service, has passed the Confederate Congress. The last appeal is made to all within those ages to promptly respond to this call. Especially of our own dear county let it be said—"Many have done WELL, but THOU excellest them all." Organize immediately, elect your own officers, arm with shot guns and to the field.

KNOXVILLE, April 18.

Capt. Ashby, commanding three hundred Confederate Cavalry, encountered seven hundred and fifty Lincolnites, who were stampeding for Kentucky, on yesterday, near Jacksonborough, Tennessee.

A hand to hand fight ensued, which lasted for two hours. Our men succeeded in killing about seventy-five and taking 500 prisoners.

Our loss, none killed, and about twenty-five wounded—none mortally.

No less than 5,000 Lincolnites have left East Tennessee for Kentucky, since Gov. Harris' proclamation calling on the militia, &c.

Latest from Corinth.

Special to the Picayune.]

CORINTH, April 10.

We have nothing further this morning from the front of our army.

The enemy is concentrating his force preparatory to another battle, which may be expected within the next ten days, and which will be the decisive battle of this revolution.

Among conspicious acts of gallantry mentioned in general orders, is that of Father Turgis, chaplain of Orleans Guard Battalion, for his humanity to the wounded on the field of battle.

Also, Major Dumantiel, volunteer member of the same battalion, for gallantry in marching to the front to show the Confederate colors to some of our regiments who were firing upon each other. The 1st Louisiana Regiment, Col. Adams, took seven stand of colors. Over twenty stand were captured in all.

The enemy wear steel-plated vests.

The following general order was issued this morning:

"HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF MISSISSIPPI, CORINTH, MISS., April 10

"Soldiers—Your late Commander-in-chief, Gen. A. S. Johnston, is dead! A fearless soldier, a sagacious captain, a reproachless man, has fallen. One who, in his devotion to our cause, shrank from no sacrifice; one who, animated by a sense of duty, and sustained by a sublime courage, challanged danger, and perished gallantly for his country while leading forward his brave columns to victory. His signal example of heroism and patriotism, if imitated, would make his army invincible.

"A grateful country will mourn his loss, revere his name and cherish his many virtues. G. T. BEAUREGARD,
"General Commanding."

PUBLIC NOTICE!

Whereas it has been reported to the Vigilance Committee for Charlotte Beat that a few persons in this town are depreciating the Confederate Notes and North Carolina Treasury Notes, by refusing to take them and by buying up coin, gold bullion, and silver plates at enormous rates of premium, therefore, be it

Resolved, That this committee look upon any such course as an evidence of unsoundness on the part of the persons engaged in it, and that they call on all good citizens to report any case of the kind which may come to their knowledge that the committee may publish the names and take such course as they may deem necessary.

By order of the Vigilance Committee of Charlotte North Carolina.

COME TO THE RESCUE!

Captain William Lee Davidson, commanding Company "D," 7th Regiment, (Col. Campbell's,) North Carolina Troops, is anxious to swell the ranks of his company to the maximum number authorized by the Confederate States Congress.

The military character and ability of the 7th Regiment is too well known to need comment. All persons desirous of entering one of the best drilled regiments in the Confederate service, should apply immediately to R. F. Davidson, who is authorized to enlist men for the above company.

The Confederate bounty is deposited at the Branch Bank of N. C., in this place, to be paid recruits immediately after enlisting.
